

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT IMMIGRATION QUESTIONNAIRE

In accordance with U.S. federal regulations, this form is used to determine the immigration status of all international students admitted to Georgetown University. The Liberal Studies Bachelor’s, Master’s, Doctoral and Non-Degree Graduate Programs and the International Executive MBA program are all designed as part-time programs, therefore Georgetown University cannot issue the “Certificate of Eligibility” (Form I-20 or DS-2019) for participation in any of these programs. Please note that individuals who enter the United States in B-1/B-2 or F-2 status are not permitted to enroll in any of these programs. All applicants must be in the United States in another legal status which permits degree study.

ALL non-U.S. citizens (including Permanent Residents) must complete and return this form, along with copies of the passport biographic page and evidence of legal status to: Ms. Giovanna Ubillus, Office of International Programs (OIP), 1421 37th St., NW, Box 571013, Georgetown University, Washington, DC 20057-1013. Email: gu3@georgetown.edu, Telephone: (202) 687-5867.
