ATTENTION TRANSFER STUDENTS:

If you are already in the United States studying at another university, you must transfer your student immigration status to Georgetown University. Transfer students should note:

- Contact your International Student Advisor at your previous school to release your SEVIS record to Georgetown. GU will issue your I-20 or DS-2019 Form only after receiving a Transfer-in Form (<http://oip.georgetown.edu/iss/transfer.htm>) and all other requested supporting documentation. The transfer release date must be reached before GU can issue your document.
- Transfers must occur within 60 days following successful completion of a program of study at another school or within 60 days following an authorized period of Optional Practical Training.
- If you depart the United States during this transfer period, you must use the GU-issued I-20 or DS-2019 Form when you re-enter.

PART 3: ACADEMIC YEAR ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Prior to issuance of an I-20 or DS-2019 Form, U.S. federal regulations require Georgetown University to obtain certification that students have financial resources adequate to provide for their expenses without resorting to unauthorized employment. Georgetown University has estimated nine month expenses as follows;

$$(Tuition + Fees = $13,901) + (Living Expenses = $15,550) + (Books + Insurance = $2,995)$$

Total for which you must show financial documentation: $32,446

DEPENDENTS

If your spouse and/or children will reside with you in the United States during your program of study, you must show an additional $7,775 per year for the first dependent and $3,888 per year for each additional dependent. Dependents are legal spouses and children under age 21 only. Please provide the following information for each dependent for whom you will request F-2 or J-2 status and submit a photocopy of the biographic page of each dependent's passport. Additional dependents may be listed on a separate sheet of paper. Please note that dependents in F-2 status are prohibited from engaging in either employment and/or full-time study in the United States.
