

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

Department of Philosophy

June 13, 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter in reference to Ms. Joy Conrad, a Ph.D. student in the department of Philosophy at Georgetown University.

Ms. Conrad is currently conducting dissertation research abroad. She is making satisfactory progress towards her doctoral degree, she is expected to complete the program by May 2011, and our department confirms the academic legitimacy of her international travel during this period of research.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Segal
